

Dr. Tammé Shinshuri presents How to Build a Self-Sustaining Philanthropic Business

Do you make enough revenue to achieve the vision, mission, and purpose of your business or organization?

Do you want to be a business philanthropist focused on creating goodness and prosperity in the community?

What is business philanthropy and how can you use it to generate sustainable revenue for your non-profit or convert your for profit into a philanthropic business?

Learn how to build a self-sustaining philanthropic business:

- Need Identification
- Strategic Planning
- Solution Development
- Test and Launch

Dr. Shinshuri is the living embodiment of the principles she brings to the world, which is to live as an expression of unconditional love and to be in direct deliberate action about her life purpose and desires. Her goal is to create with real intention each day through her devotion to live and be in philanthropic service for the expansion and evolution of humanity through educational empowerment.

Dr. Shinshuri is a business philanthropist devoted to human evolution. Her vision and mission is to ensure that more people through authentic living and leadership development are able to live empowered by eliminating the excuses that can get in the way of their human evolution and personal prosperity.

Her first book Super Conscious Model for Living was published in 2011 to support the Personal Transformation Leadership program at OT Academy. Her newest book and CD Expressions of Unconditional Love are also featured text for the personal Transformation Leadership program.

Dr. Shinshuri lives in Sacramento, California where she continues to live out her life purpose as a prolific writer, business philanthropist, producer, and speaker. Her website is www.shinshuri.com.

Student Feedback

"The energy, pace, passion, and knowledge was exceptional."

"Dr. Shinshuri's energy and passion was phenomenal. The you can do it too approach was fantastic."

"It was great to experience and see someone actually doing what they are teaching. Well done!"

"The enthusiasm, information sharing, and partnership displayed made for an impressive learning experience."